Easily define the picture gallery...About the Film Since the dawn of civilization, humans have been fascinated with the mysteries of the universe, and the images of the cosmos have inspired everyone from myth makers to science visionaries. The 2012 film Cosmos depicts a thousand-year-old epic journey of discovery, through a metaphor of time and space in an overview of the universe as we have come to know it, and as our understanding of the universe grows, so do our questions. The film is a throwback to Carl Sagan's original series, and was produced by Ann Druyan (co-author of our book Cosmos) and Steven Soter, with contributions from Neil deGrasse Tyson (Fusion).Linda Ch 10:03 AM Wednesday Oct 23, 2011 0 Share Article MIDDLETOWN, OHIO -- A nationwide search for the 'Best Small Town' is in full swing and a Mid-Ohio household is making it their own. With a recent win in the 'Best Small Town' contest, the family of Mid-Ohio's Linda and Joe Ch handed out gala, double-presents to local children. They've served as the community's ambassadors of the contest and now a celebration has been planned for next week on the Ch's front lawn. "For the past two years we've had events throughout our town, but this is the first time we've held a gala for the winners," says Linda Ch. "We would have had this celebration anyway, but our children wanted it." The Ch's have a boy, 6, and a girl, 1. The children recently attended two gala celebrations in the Utica area to compete in the title, with a goal of someday being Mid-Ohio's Honorary Ambassador to the Big Apple. For the past four years the Ch's have worked with Mrs. Susan Bitting, a fourth grade teacher, and Mrs. Jane Esh, a first grade teacher, to write the book "Our Town." The purpose was to teach children about their community. This year the Ch's added one more book to the family's library, asking local businesses to support the book. A campaign to have the "Best Small Town"
